

Thinker1 Hardware Reference

About the thinker1 board

The thinker1 is a prototyping board based on the Arduino platform. The microprocessor on this board can be programmed using the Arduino software, downloadable for free from www.arduino.cc

The thinker1 is a unique board designed and developed especially for you by Thinkspace at the Powerhouse Museum in Sydney Australia. It is made up of a unique blend of onboard components and can also be easily expanded using standard Arduino compatible components.

Parts of the board

